

Marketing + Partnerships Intern Opportunity

Reports To: Senior Director, Marketing + Partnerships

Category: Part time, Internship, Non-exempt

Deadline: Apply by March 24, 2025

About The Guild: The Guild of Artists & Artisans (The Guild) is a non-profit, membership association of independent artists founded in 1973 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Its mission is to promote community awareness, understanding and appreciation of the visual arts and to maintain a support network for artists, which provides educational, mentoring and marketing opportunities. It furthers this mission by: producing nine fine art fairs, managing The Gutman Gallery, and working with young artists in The Guild's Emerging Artist Program.

Job Description: The Marketing + Partnerships Intern supports all aspects of the Guild's marketing, development, sponsorship and communications. This internship is for those interested in development, sponsorship, graphic design, marketing and art-related nonprofit administration. We are looking for someone with excellent verbal and written communication skills who is a creative, organized, and motivated individual that appreciates the value of the arts and is interested in helping support the development and promotion of an arts nonprofit that produces fine art fairs and manages an art gallery. Beyond supporting the essential needs of the Director of Marketing + Partnerships and Communications Manager, additional responsibilities can be tailored to the chosen candidate's experience and interests.

Weekly schedules can be flexible, but applicants should be available for an average of 10-15 hours per week (hours increasing during and leading up to events). Applicants must also be available on select weekends and evenings of art fairs.

Duties:

- Support Director of Marketing + Partnerships and Communications Manager with marketing, communications, social media and sponsorship materials;
- Research and identify potential sponsors;
- Research and identify potential grant opportunities;
- Support and apply for grants;
- Provide onsite event support of sponsors and Guild partners;
- Continually work to identify new ideas and opportunities to increase the Guild's digital audience growth and engagement;
 - create and schedule social media content
- Ensure that Guild fairs and programs are listed in all appropriate online and printed event calendars;
- Develop and maintain graphics, photos and videos to help promote each fair and The Guild;
- Provide post-event analyses, documentation and research reports as assigned;

- Complete additional projects as assigned by the Senior Director of Marketing + Partnerships; and
- Additional projects as assigned by the Executive Director.

Desired Qualifications:

- Working toward or received Bachelor’s Degree in Graphic Design, Marketing, Communications, NonProfit Administration, Public Relations or similar discipline;
- Exceptionally strong written & verbal communication skills—comprehensive knowledge of English grammar, spelling, and punctuation ;
- Superior time management and multitasking skills—the ability to prioritize tasks with minimal supervision is essential;
- Well-organized and able to meet multiple and competing deadlines;
- Professional, responsive, and a positive work attitude—ability to interact effectively with staff, artists, partners, the public, the board of directors and volunteers; and
- Proficient with Google Drive, Word, and Sheets and with design software such as: Canva/Photoshop/Illustrator/Adobe InDesign;
- Website [WordPress, Wix, and Square] maintenance skills helpful;
- Video production and photography skills beneficial; and
- Interest in non-profit administration is helpful.

Compensation: $2,000 Stipend at end of internship [approx. $500/month; May-August] and/or school credit.

Additional Perks: Valuable hands-on and professional experience in a non-profit setting; school credit; and opportunity to meet, collaborate, and network with artists and community members.

Eligibility: Interested individuals over the age of 18 are eligible for internships. The Guild provides equal opportunity to its applicants.

Schedule + Time Commitment: The Guild will work with interns individually to determine specific start and end dates, as well as weekly schedules. On average, interns should be available to work a weekly schedule of at least 10-15 hours per week. Ideal candidates will be available starting in May through the duration of fair season (May-September). Interns must be available during the Ann Arbor Summer Art Fair (July 17-19) and should expect to work longer hours during those dates. Interns should be available to work some weekends and evenings to help support other events. Interns may work some hours virtually.

Transportation: The Guild of Artists & Artisans offices are located at 118 N Fourth Ave in downtown Ann Arbor, close to public transportation and several pay lots, as well as free neighborhood parking within walking distance. At this time, The Guild does not provide parking passes to any pay lots. Transportation will be the responsibility of the intern.

Full list of 2025 fairs: Garage Sale Art Fair (February 22), Art Birmingham (May 10-11), NINE Design + Homes Festival of the Arts (June 21), Ann Arbor Summer Art Fair (July 17-19), Perrysburg Hearts the Arts (August 16-17), Brighton Street Art Fair (August 22-24), Common Grounds' Birmingham Street Art Fair (September 13-14), A2 Artoberfest (October 11-12), and Royal Oak Market: Art Fair Edition (November 13-14).

Apply: Please submit your resume and cover letter in PDF format to the Senior Director, Marketing & Partnerships, Allison Neal at allison@theguild.org.